Drama Workshop Closes With 3 One-Act Plays

The Drama Workshop, a summer class in drama conducted by the Adult Education program at Torrance High School, closed for the summer last week with the presentation of three one-act plays at the High School auditorium.

Included in the evening's entertainment were the plays "Antic Spring," directed by Marian McDonald; "He Ain't Done Right By Nell," directed by Elaine Kohnoldt; and "Happy Journey," directed by Dwight Hanna.

Mrs. Russell Lund gave two Shakespearean readings, and Deanna Shriver presented a vocal solo.

The class has been under the direction of Dan Desmond, who was drama instructor at Torrance High last year. He is entering the Los Angeles City school system this fall.

El Camino Instructor On Advisory Committee

The National Education Association of the United States has appointed Richard T. Haley, business instructor at El Camino College, to serve during 1951-52 on the NEA Advisory Committee.

Haley, a graduate of Memphis State College and the University of Southern California, is presently serving on the Executive Board of the Department of Classroom Teachers of the Southern Section of the California Teachers Association. Haley has been at El Camino College three and a half years.

The next National Jamboree of the Boy Scouts of America is scheduled for the summer of 1953, the third such encampment.
